

Q: What is the new, improved WiFi service all about ?

A: Connect to the campus WiFi network using your student number and password (same as when you enter your student portal on the FEU website).

No need to bring your device(s) for registration. Use the same login method for new devices you may later acquire.